PARISH NEWS

PARISH FAMILY MINISTRY STARTING: We pray and seek to bring Parish families & parishioners together to grow deeper in Christ & the Catholic Church. First Sunday session, May 5th. Flyers in the back of church.

SACRAMENT OF CONFIRMATION: Do you wish to receive this wonderful sacrament, giving us the awesome gift of the Holy Spirit in a stronger way in our lives? Celebrated at our cathedral Friday evening, May 31st. Please contact Deacon Chuck ASAP.

FROM FATHER MAYO: If you did not receive a letter this week from Father Mayo, please let Jerri or him know by calling the office or sending an email. Thank you so much!

CONDOLENCES: To Tom Weiland and the family of our parishioner, LIZ FEELY, 92, who was buried this week. May she know the Risen Lord in wondrous manner!

FIRST HOLY COMMUNION PRAYERS: These young children will receive First Holy Communion at 10 A.M. Mass next Sunday, April 28. Please keep them and their good families in your prayers: Anabella Colimodio, Franjelica Dadulla, Serafina Ferruzzi, Erica Jackson, Isabelle Reksopuro, and Symonn Beduya. A big thanks to Carol Amsberry, who has been their main teacher for both First Reconciliation and First Holy Communion. May God bless and help us all!

NEWMAN NEWS

FRAGUA NIGHTS: Every Tuesday at 6:30 P.M. at the Newman Center, Fraguas I-IV gather for Fragua Nights: dinner, music, prayer, talk and discussion. Don’t miss it!

LADIES’ BIBLE MEDITATION: Join us 8:30 A.M. Wednesdays at the Newman Center for coffee & meditation on the Gospel with other young ladies.

MEN’S BOOK-STUDY GROUP: Join other young men from the Newman Center & Fr. Maximo 7:30 A.M. Wednesday morning at Seattle’s Best coffee shop, to read and discuss books relating to faith.

THEOLOGY SCHOOL NIGHTS: Join us Thursdays 6:30 P.M. at the Newman Center, for either a movie, talk, or presentation by a guest speaker, followed by great group discussions!

Take little notice of who is with you or against you... so long as you always try to please God and write what is true.

Love to be unknown both by yourself and by others.....

Those who flatter you deceive you....Never take a man for your example - however holy he may be - for the devil will show you his faults....

It is a great wisdom to know how to be silent and to look at neither the remarks, the deeds, nor the lives of others.... Show no partiality as you adhere to the faith in our glorious Lord Jesus Christ....

CATHOLICISM

This 10-week series hosted by Fr. Robert Barron continues Wednesday, April 17th, at 7 P.M. in the Conference Room.

This week’s program is “Happy Are We - The Teachings of Jesus.”

Contact Bob Grist at bobgrist@hotmail.com or Gary Haven at ghaven@earthlink.net for more information.
Allow yourself to be taught, to be corrected, to be despised... to be humbled.

Where have You hidden Yourself, O my Beloved? For "life is so short, the path leading to eternal life so narrow, and I know the just man is scarcely saved, while the things of the world are vain and deceitful, and all comes to an end and fails like falling water. The time is uncertain, the accounting strict, perdition very easy and salvation most difficult... My life has vanished, I know well I must render an account of everything - from the beginning of my life as well as this later part - unto the last penny, when God will search Jerusalem with lighted candles, and it is already late - the day far spent - to remedy so much evil and harm..."

He asked him: "And what are you doing here? Have you been up all night?"

"Yes," replied the guard with deference and a bit surprised.

"On your feet?"

"Your Holiness, my duty since I took over from my companion."

"And aren't you tired?"

"It's my duty Your Holiness; I should watch for your safety."

Pope Francis looked at him again with kindness, went back to his suite and after a minute he came out carrying a chair: "At least sit down and rest."

The guard rolled his eyes and answered: "Santo Padre, forgive me, but I cannot! The regulations do not allow that."

"The regulations?"

"Orders from my captain, Your Holiness."

The Pope smiled, "Oh, really? Well, I'm the Pope and I order you to sit down."

So, caught between the regulations and the Pope, the Swiss Guard (so much for the halberd) chose the chair.

The Pope returned to his apartment.

After a couple of minutes, the Pope came back to the Swiss Guard, still obediently seated on the chair, carrying "panino con marmellata" (Italian bread with jam) which he had prepared. Before the soldier could say anything, the Holy Father, exhibiting his Argentinean smile, told the Swiss Guard, "With all the hours spent standing on guard you must be a bit hungry." The Swiss Guard had no time to object because the Pope right away wished him a good bite: "Bon appetit, brother."

May God preserve him for many years.
RECYCLE 1DOZEN-SIZE EGG CARTONS WITH US to use when we divide flats of eggs for food boxes.

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED! We have an amazing variety of opportunities for you to serve the poor of downtown Portland. Here is a sampling of our human resource needs:

If you can lift 25 pounds & like to get up early, we’ll welcome you to our team that picks up donations from the Oregon Food Bank on Mondays.

If you are able to operate a bread slicer, we have donated artisan breads awaiting your expertise.

If you enjoy making soup “from scratch,” AND/OR like to make sandwiches for 75 to 100 guests, we serve lunch Monday through Friday from 10 to 11 A.M., rain or shine, to anyone in need.

If you take pleasure in helping others “shop,” we offer food boxes to supplement meager cupboards Monday, Wednesday, & Friday from 1 to 2:30 P.M.

If you relish simple conversation, we’ll employ your gift of gab with sack lunch or food box guests.

If you know how to drive a 12-passenger van, we pick up food donations with the St. Michael Mobile Monday, Wednesday, & Friday mornings.

If you enjoy sorting, weighing, recording, & stocking food donations, we need you on Monday!

If you like to flatten cardboard & sort plastics for recycling, we are proud to be “green.”

If you relish simple conversation, we’ll employ your gift of gab with sack lunch or food box guests.

Contact Rosemary Rettig at 503.228.0842 or socialservices@stmichaelportland.org to sign up or for more details.

OUR GENEROUS SUPPORTERS: We could not do what we do for Portland’s downtown poor & needy without the generous support of the following: Friends & Parishioners of St Michael Church, Baker & Spice Bakery, Jefferson Street Safeway, The Madeline Catholic Elementary School, Maybelle Clark Macdonald Fund, The Oregon Food Bank, Our Lady of the Lake Catholic Church, Portland Plaza Condominium, Portland State University, Providence Hospital Mission Team, Providence Hospital St. Vincent, Schmizza Pub & Grub, St. Andre Bisette (Downtown Chapel), St. Mary’s Cathedral, St. Mary’s Academy, St. Theresa Catholic Elementary School, Terwilliger Plaza Retirement Community, Whole Foods at Tanasbourne Mall.

NEXT TIME YOU’RE AT THE GROCERY STORE: You could make a food box guest very happy by purchasing small jars of condiments & donating them to our Social Services program. We will also repackage large bags of sugar or coffee to send home with our singletons. Lately we’ve had a shortage of sandwich bread for our sack lunches, so we’d appreciate donations of fresh sliced bread! You can leave non-perishables in the donation basket in the church vestibule, or drop them off during office hours. Thank you for your support!
April 27th & 28th is Commitment Weekend!

This past week information packets were mailed to all registered households who had not personally picked up their packets. Parishioners are asked to review the campaign brochure, pray about your personal decision to pledge, and return the pledge card in the sealed envelope next weekend, Commitment Weekend. Please be as generous as possible to help St. Michael Parish reach its pledge goal.

Over $3.45 Million Pledged!

Our Campaign for the Seismic Upgrade and Restoration of our historic church continues to gain momentum as pledges total over $3.45 million. We wish to thank St. Michael’s parishioners and friends who are pledging to the campaign.

THANK YOU!     THANK YOU!     THANK YOU!

Thank you to all who have contributed to the current campaign for the St. Michael’s building project. This list includes those who have signed pledge cards on the current campaign through April 18th and anonymous gifts. Others who intend to sign (but have not yet signed) a pledge card will be added on future bulletin inserts. Watch the list grow! Thank you all for your continued support. Together we will be successful.
